CABLETEK - A TRADITION OF INNOVATION AND SERVICE

Over 30 years ago, CableTek began supplying plastic products to the young and developing cable TV industry. Since then, the industry has grown in many directions and the technology has advanced to levels that allow more video, voice and data to flow through a cable than ever imagined.

In order to accommodate the advances in our industry, CableTek is continually developing products that keep pace with today's wiring needs and we are concentrating on the future.

CableTek is a manufacturer of specialized products. We do our own inhouse molding and our in-house tooling department allows us the ability to produce quality products, economically and with short lead times.

We can supply your company with the wiring products you need to provide your customers with the most professional installations, while keeping costs low and helping you stay competitive in today's market.

From all of us at CableTek, we'd like to say "Thank You."
